1. Thank you for your submission. Your request, reference (a), was carefully considered by OPM and it was determined that a Special Selection Board is warranted.
2. In accordance with reference (b) and (c), Special Selection Boards will be convened to consider or reconsider commissioned officers or former commissioned officers for promotion due to material or administrative errors.
3. As outlined in reference (d), requests for special selection board and matters of record are still being received by OPM. Due to extenuating circumstances, service need will dictate the timelines for initiation of Special Selection Board convenings.
